TEN LIVES LOST AT PEORIA

EXPLOSION IN DISTILLERY HAS TERRIBLE RESULTS

Victims Buried in Ruins of Burning Building—Fire Spreads to Stock Yards—Loss Will Reach a Million.

Peoria, June 4.—An explosion which occurred in the eleven-story warehouse of the Corning distillery, the second largest in the world, late this afternoon completely wrecked the building. The ruins immediately took fire and communicated to three adjoining buildings, burning them to the ground. Ten men were killed beneath the ruins and burned to death. Six others were seriously injured. Loss on the buildings and whisky and spirits stored will approximate $1,000,000. At 7 o'clock this evening the fire had spread to the stockyards district, where a dozen large cattle barns, filled with cattle for market, are burning.

THE MISSING.

LOUIS BEHREND.
JOHN HOBECKER.
JOE ZIMMERMAN.

WILLIAM FINLEY, JR.
E. BROWN.

JOHN LEPPIN.
WILLIAM FIELD.

The injured: Adam Werner, Edward Winer, Elmer Hogan, J. H. Marshall, James M. Miller, Alie Feinberg. With the fall of the big warehouse the third catastrophe in the short space of less than a year overtook the distilling company and a number of lives, variously estimated from nine to fifteen, were hurled into eternity, while a number of others were injured.

Two other explosions followed in rapid succession, but their cause cannot yet be determined and it is possible may never be known. The wildest excitement prevailed and in an incredibly short time the plant was surrounded by thousands of people.

The warehouse, containing about 30,000 barrels of whisky, was instantaneously a seething cauldron and it was known no one inside the big structure could last a moment. It was sure death to all who had been at work there.

The warehouse, in crushing a smaller structure nearby, set that on fire and whisky from bursting barrels flooded everything in that section. Streams ran toward the river and in a short time there was a foot of whisky in the cattle pens. It was burning furiously and the cries of the 3,200 steers chained fast was pitiable. Their distress lasted but a few moments, for they were soon either roasted or suffocated.

The two fermenting houses caught fire and were soon destroyed. After a fierce battle the firemen succeeded in checking the flames before they reached the Monarch distillery and buildings adjoining.

The death of Fred Knoll was a horrible one. He and William Finley had just left the building when the explosion and collapse came. Finley turned just in time to see the wall fall on his companion, who was crushed to the earth and almost instantly the place where he had gone down was enveloped in flames.

Elmer Hogan had a miraculous escape. He was at work in the warehouse when the collapse came. He was washed out through a break in the building by a big stream of whisky and carried toward the river a distance of nearly seventy-five feet before being lodged against a fence from which he managed to escape before the fire overtook him. He was removed to the hospital in a badly injured condition and cannot recover.

Besides the 30,000 barrels of whisky in warehouse B there were 52,000 gallons of spirits in the eastern room and 90,000 gallons of spirits in the fermenting rooms, all destroyed.

At midnight the ruins were still blazing. The fact that every bit of inflammable material was thoroughly saturated with the escaping liquor makes it almost impossible to extinguish the blaze until all the wood has burned.

In the cattle barns the bodies of 3,000 cattle are lying like winnows of hay in a harvest field. Practically all the cattle met death so suddenly that they did not move out of their tracks.

TREATY NEGOTIATIONS DENIED.

London, June 4.—It is authoritatively stated that no negotiations are on foot for an Anglo-American treaty. The trend of opinion is that there is scarcely any necessity for a formal treaty, as all matters now in dispute between the two countries will go automatically to arbitration.

RAILROAD RUMORS.

Kansas City, June 4.—The Star says there is a rumor that the Rock Island has purchased the Burlington tracks between Cameron, Mo., and Kansas City and that the Burlington will shortly begin using the tracks of the Quincy, Omaha & Kansas City line to this city, relieving its present tracks to the Rock Island.

RIVERS STILL RISING

Flood Conditions in Kansas Growing Worse—Great Losses in Oil Fields.

Kansas City, June 4.—Further rains have fallen in southern Kansas within the past twelve hours. Flood conditions in the valley of the Neosho and Catoowood rivers continue to grow worse. Streams are higher than at any time in twenty years and still rising. A yet no alarm is felt of the result of the flood along the Kaw river.

Oklahoma and Indian Territory streams also are high and in some instances have overflowed banks, inundating valuable farm lands and doing more or less damage. Highway service throughout the southwest is demoralized. A dozen or more trains are stalled in Kansas.

Damage already done by the floods is immense. Hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of bridges have been destroyed and growing crops have been greatly damaged.

As far as known but two lives, a woman and child, names unknown, who were drowned at Florence, have been reported.

The greatest damage wrought is in the great oil fields of southern Kansas in the vicinity of Chanute and Iola, Florence, Emporia, Fort Scott and further west along the Arkansas at Wichita and other points.

Lawton, O. T., June 4.—A tornado demolished the town of Walters near here. One man was killed and twelve injured. Continued heavy rains in this section have turned all streams into torrents and valleys are inundated.

Oklahoma City, O. T., June 4.—Water covers the northwestern section of this city and hundreds of families have been driven from their homes. There is much suffering.

EMPLOYEES IDLE

Railroads and Steamships Out Down Force Owing to Lake Strike.

Milwaukee, June 4.—The Daily News to day says strikers have been receiving a large number of orders of railroads and steamships to reduce working forces on account of the deep recession by the trouble over the strike on the Lake Canada association and Masters' and Pilots' association. The order affects a large number of employees and applies to all lake ports where the companies have connections.

Sixteen captains whose vessels are in port here to day withdrew from the Masters' and Pilots' association because of the threat of the association to affiliate with the American Federation of Labor. Vesselsmen believe this practically breaks the strike.

INVESTIGATION CLOSED.

Chicago, June 4.—In the inquiry into the Michigan fruit business J. C. Maynard, of Grand Rapids, testified that E. E. Wolcott, representative of the Armour company, threatened to "make it hot" for merchants who would testify to the effect of an alleged monopoly contract between Armour and the railroads. The company's attorney explained that Wolcott was a subordinate employee and had no authority to make such a statement. The inquiry was finished this evening. Attorneys will file briefs within fifteen days, when the case will be taken under advisement.

He was the favorite at 11 to 20, but had to be ridden hard at the finish to stall off the determined rush of Britisher. The claimant was third. O'Neill sent Song and Wine to the front in the first few jumps.

FRENCH VIEW PESSIMISTIC

EXPECT EARLY FALL OF PORT ARTHUR

Military Critics Disapprove of Kuropatkin's Policy—Nothing
Known of Gen. Kuroki's Reported Capture.

Paris, June 4.—Leading military authorities here expect the early fall of Port Arthur and view this as a most serious if not irreparable blow to Russia, the present condition of Port Arthur being compared to that of Metz and Sedan during the Franco-Prussian war. It is pointed out that Kuropatkin is making the same fatal mistake in regard to Port Arthur's ability to resist that the French made in connection with Metz. Military critics without exception disapprove of Kuropatkin's policy of non-resistance. This is a notable change in French sentiment since the war began. The official view for the first time is strongly pessimistic concerning Russia's ability to retrieve the series of reverses culminating with the expected fall of Port Arthur.

St. Petersburg, June 4.—Nothing is known in government circles here to day regarding the rumored capture of General Kuroki, the authorities having received no news from the front since the announcement this afternoon of the flight at Salmatza. It is pointed out that news of such great importance would not be held back a moment if it had been received.

WAR REPORTS.

Chofoo, June 5, 11 a. m.—The Russian consular here is receiving messages from Port Arthur by means of carrier pigeons. The messages are being forwarded to St. Petersburg.

St. Petersburg, June 4.—V. S. Smith, brother of the United States consul at Moscow, has arrived from Port Arthur, where he is in business. He says there were 35,000 Russians there when he left Port Arthur and every man is prepared to fight to the last to prevent the capture of the fortress. Smith is confident that the Japanese will never capture Port Arthur unless they sacrifice thousands of men. All the surrounding heights have been strongly fortified. He counted in one day between 300 and 400 guns. Smith says the Russians have ample stores of provisions for four and a half years.

Tokio, June 4.—The commander of the Japanese forces south of the Yalu river telegraphed from Seoul to day news of a series of fights north of Pusan Tien, about forty miles north of Port Adams, Liao Tung peninsula. Monday, received from Japanese cavalry scouting in the vicinity of Chu Chia Tung. It was learned Cossacks had been located at Tolssu and the Japanese thereupon dispatched infantry and cavalry, which defeated and pursued them. The Russian force consisted of three squadrons. At Chang Chia Tung this force was joined by two additional squadrons and the Japanese again attacked and defeated the Russians. Five companies of infantry and a battery of horse artillery joined the Russians at Lung Wang Miao, where the Japanese attacked for a third time, and the Russians fell back to Tolssu, where Japanese and Russian cavalry continued in contact Monday night.

St. Petersburg, June 4.—The war office received news of a sharp fight twenty miles north of Salmatza June 1, in which six Cossacks were killed and twenty-two wounded. Japanese losses are not known. Five companies of General Rennenkampf's Cossacks discovered Japanese detachments at Pen Chou Ling pass, half way between Salmatza and Aludjan. The Cossacks dismounted and attacked on foot, but owing to the difficult nature of the ground and strong defensive position held by the enemy and the latter's stubborn resistance the attack was not pressed and the Cossacks drew off.

Seoul, June 4.—The commissioner of customs of Gen San wires a Russian attack on that place is deemed imminent. He is making preparations to send women and children to a mountain monastery. A Junk has just reported Russian have landed field pieces at the Sha river, near Ham Heung, where Cossack reinforcements are expected.

A skirmish took place between twenty Cossacks and an unknown force of Japanese scouts twelve miles north of Gen San Friday morning. The Cossacks evidently were ambushed by the Japanese, who were concealed in the brush on the hillside. The Russians eventually retired toward Hamhoun, leaving six dead. Japanese casualties are not stated.

Nagasaki, Japan, June 4.—Wounded Japanese who arrived here attribute the heavy casualties at Nanshan hill to Russian alleged misuse of the white flag.

RUSSIAN ADVANCE GUARD.

Paris, June 5.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Matin says he learns from a trustworthy source that an advance guard of 14,000 men under General Stokelberg, sent by General Kuropatkin to the relief of Port Arthur, has already reached the entrance to the Liao Tung peninsula and that the bulk of the army is following. The correspondent of the Matin at New Chung confirms this, stating that important movements of Russian troops are proceeding to the southward of Tachihwa toward Kaping.

MOORS EXCITED

Presence of American Warships Has Effect—France Feels Complications.

Washington, June 3.—Admiral Cocksack to day (above the navy department) that the presence of the American fleet in the Pacific has a salutary effect, but the complexity is in a state of great redoubt excitement.

Paris, June 4.—It is understood France would view favorably the withdrawal of some of the American warships now at Tanager. Their presence has attracted the ships of other nations and in event of local agitation all might find forces to preserve order. It is pointed out that this would involve serious responsibilities upon the United States and have the effect of obscuring France's influence in Moroccan. American officials say that the ships will be withdrawn if France will undertake to release Perigaris, but France does not wish to assume the entire responsibility.

REMEDY FOR MILK FEVER.

Washington, June 4.—Successful treatment of milk fever in cows by the injection of "filtered atmospheric air" into the udder is announced in a bulletin issued by the department of agriculture. The air treatment described is simple and experiments have been successful in every instance. Milk fever has heretofore been a fatal malady, inflicting great havoc in all large dairy districts.

WORK OF TORNADO

Great Damage Wrought in Indian Territory by Wind.

Lawton, O. T., June 4.—A tornado in the Kiowa and Comanche nations has demolished a great number of residences and business houses at numerous small towns and laid waste dozens of farms. One person is known to have been killed and about a dozen are believed to have been injured, one fatally. It is reported that the towns of Chittanooga and Faxon, small places, have been entirely wiped out. They are known to have been in the track of the storm. Wires are down and details are lacking. The town of Holt also is said to have been completely destroyed. The dead Thomas Payne, near Walter.

An area several miles wide and extending from Frederick, in the southwestern part of Comanche county, to the Indian territory line, was devastated. In this belt it is estimated that fully two hundred houses were wrecked and crops almost totally ruined.

A terrific rain storm prevailed first, five inches of water falling, washing out crops and ruining many farms. This was followed by an unusually heavy hail storm, hail stones as big as a man's hand beating down everything green and breaking thousands of window panes.

TALKS TO SUPPORTERS

Governor Yates Asks Them to Support Deneen for Governor.

The delegates met in the assembly room in the south end of the armory building, on the second floor, at 1:15 p. m. When Governor Yates entered the room the assemblage rose and cheered. Cries of "Close the door" were heard. Governor Yates advanced to the little table placed at the head of the room and seizing the gavel said: "Leave the door open." Then in a resolute, clear voice he addressed the delegates:

In the days of 1842 to 1843 there was in the county of McLean a glorious regiment which was called the "Yates Phalanx." (Applause.) It bore throughout many battles an old flag presented to the phalanx by the man after whom it was named. The flag is now, together with the standards of many other regiments, in the memorial hall of the Illinois state house. Among the most precious possessions of my old mother, who lives at Jacksonville at the age of 87, is a little section of that flag, about two inches square. She cherishes it as one of her most precious memories. Why? Because of the manhood it represents, because of the first full measure of devotion that stood by that flag as it went charging up the hill to victory, or as it stubbornly retreated to a valorous defeat?

That flag, gentlemen, could not always be in front. At times it had to go down the hill instead of up. There are such times in every campaign. No phalanx can hope always and at every inch to win. The time has apparently come when this phalanx, for the time being, is in that attitude and position. But there are tomorrow's to come. Beyond the valleys and the hills there are other victories to be won by the phalanx which for the time being can go no further up the hill to its present charge.

The is a good book which says that the steps of a good man are ordered and that he shall not fall. That might be well said of that whole phalanx. This phalanx has been temporarily checked; this phalanx representing the majority of the Republican voters of the state outside of the city of Chicago, has been checked by influences it is not necessary for me to enumerate or describe.

MORE THAN NOMINA.

It suffices to say we have had the power of money to fight as no phalanx ever had before. (Cheers.) We have had federal influence to fight such as no phalanx ever had before. We have had a press attack to fight such as no phalanx ever had before. We have had falsehoods to fight, we have had treachery to fight, we have had ingratitude of the men we placed in power ourselves. (Cheers and cries of "Hopkins," "Hopkins.")

There is something more than the mere nomination of governor involved in this fight of ours. It is incumbent upon us, representing the majority of the Republican voters outside of the city of Chicago, to do so when it comes to a choice between the two Republicans bidding from the city of Chicago, to do so as we would have had them act by us. We asked them to stand by us because we represented the majority of the Republicans outside of the city. You gentlemen have been supporting not a minority candidate, but a majority candidate. (Applause.) There has come a time when we must decide between the minority candidate and the majority candidate from the city of Chicago.

I therefore announce to you that in accordance with the principles upon which we asked the Republicans of Chicago to support the majority candidate from the country I have decided, subject to approval, by the unanimous advice of the steering committee, to support the majority candidate from the city of Chicago, and within a few moments from this time, with your approval, I will take the platform in the state convention and withdraw my name in favor of Charles S. Deneen. (A tumult of cheers and waving hats, as those present rose upon their chairs, shouting "Hurrah for Yates" and "Down with the Washington syndicate.")

In doing this I have protected the rights of every man in this hall. (Applause.) I have not led you into the last ditch. (Applause.) You are to become part of the new state organization, (Applause.)

NECESSARY TO TAKE STEP.

I want to say to you that in my judgment Frank O. Yawden cannot be nominated and could not have been nominated by this convention, and the members of my steering committee were unanimously of that opinion. They were of the opinion, and so were the managing committees of the other candidates, that the powers and influence at work could not be resisted, and that it was absolutely necessary to preserve Republican organization and the will of the people of the state of Illinois to take this step.

To this steering committee, for their wisdom, their courage, their good judgment, in all this I tender my thanks.

To the 507 men who voted for me on the first ballot I tender my thanks.

To the 46 who stood by me on the last ballot I tender my thanks.

To the 383 (here the governor's voice trembled and was drowned by cheers)—I tender my everlasting gratitude.

The governor pounded with his gavel for order and silence, delegates in the back part of the room reiterating "And we will make you president."

Governor Yates resumed. Shoulder to shoulder, elbow to elbow. I ask every delegate on the next roll call in the state convention to vote for Charles S. Deneen, the choice of the Republicans of Chicago. (Voices of delegates—"We will do whatever you say.")

Governor Yates: As many as will support me in that proposition rise to your feet. Nearly all those present rose, and Governor Yates went on to say:

INVITES DELEGATES TO MANSION.

Before you leave the city, if it is possible, to night, I want every one of you to come to the mansion and let me take you by the hand and present you to Mrs. Yates. (Cheers.) After the nomination for governor a motion will be made by gentlemen allied with me in the nomination of Charles S. Deneen to add five men to the state central committee. I want every man to support that motion. After that a motion will be made to take a recess until 8 o'clock to night in order that the rest of the ticket may be discussed. (Cries of "Good.")

I shall ask the speaker of this convention for the privilege of addressing the convention. I don't think he will be as disconcerted as to refuse that privilege when I rise. If he does so I shall have to appeal to the convention. (Cries of "Put him out of the window if he won't do what is just.")

Governor Yates resumed: I want to say this. Judge Hamlin, Mr. Sherman, Mr. Pierce and their friends have united with me in making this combination—(cries of "Good, good")—but you are all to know that the proposition first came from me and Mr. Deneen and his friends will not forget it, although appreciating the support of the others. Now, if you will kindly make way, I will take my place in the convention.

The delegates drew aside and the governor went out, followed by hundreds of his delegates in the room.

NO COMPETITION.

CHAMBERLAIN'S STOMACH AND LIVER TABLETS BETTER THAN A DOCTOR'S PRESCRIPTION.

Mr. J. W. Turner, of Trubart, Va., says that Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets have done him more good than anything he could get from the doctor. If any physician in this country was able to compound a medicine that would produce such gratifying results in cases of stomach troubles, biliousness or constipation, his whole time would be used in preparing this one medicine. For sale by all leading druggists.

Dr. C. C. Henry, of West Bend, Wis., writes the Journal that he hopes to see some one of the force at the national convention in Chicago, if our state convention gets through in time. He says up in Wisconsin, if they don't get a candidate to suit them, they go to work and name another.

For sick headache take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and a quick cure is certain. For sale by all leading druggists.

IF YOU HAVE DYSPEPSIA READ THIS.

The old way of taking pepsin, bismuth, etc., to cure dyspepsia is all wrong. They may be put up in tablets or in liquids, the result is just the same. The object is to create artificial digestion, but this does not make a cure. Stop taking the pepsin, etc., and have your dyspepsia or indigestion back again. People use cocaine or opium for nervous troubles and sick headache, it does not cure. Stop taking the drug and the pain and distress return. The only Common Sense Method is to drive out of the system the cause of dyspepsia and sick headache by cleaning the stomach and bowels and at the same time using a medicine that will act upon the liver. This forces through the glands of the stomach the digestive fluid that nature intended. In this way you cure dyspepsia. The medicine that cures dyspepsia by this method is called Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills. Druggists sell these pills at 25c a box. It only takes one pill for a dose. For sale by Lee P. Allcott.

KNEW DENEEN FAMILY.
Editor Journal: I am glad that the long look has been unlocked, and that the end of political conflict ceases with a leader who will unite the popular vote of Republicans and others to unity and good will.
All that Dr. Short and others have spoken of Mr. Deneen I fully endorse. Having been a member of the class of 1850, I remember the standing of Mr. Deneen's grandfather and father in the history of McKendree college. Without hesitancy I affirm that he is of noble parentage.
Prof. R. M. Moore, of Texas, who graduated with the class of 1850 and who was professor in the institution for several years, remarked to me: "My Uncle Deneen was a superior teacher. He used to give me instruction during vacation and I had advantages over the rest of the boys of our class."
I am pleased that the end has come and the painful conflict has passed. Mr. Deneen is a true statesman, a safe leader, and, if elected, which is quite probable, he will honor the action of the convention.
That true saying has its significance: "All is well that ends well."

CHADDOCK GETS FIVE THOUSAND.
Quincy Journal: Five thousand dollars in cash for Chaddock Boys' school is the fruit of a visit paid by Attorney Homer M. Swope to Jacksonville this week. He returned home Thursday night, having successfully represented the school.

It will be remembered that some time ago Aaron Smith Waggoner died at Meredosia, Morgan county, and left $10,000 to Chaddock Boys' school. The money was left with this proviso: that it was given so long as Chaddock existed as a school for boys.

Some time later the will made by Mr. Waggoner, which was executed two years ago, was contested and it appeared that the matter would have to be carried into the courts.

Mr. Swope, however, succeeded in compromising matters for $5,000, which will come to the school without any provision.

Mr. Waggoner died at Meredosia Feb. 6 last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. McLean. He had been a lifelong resident of the county and left no immediate relatives.

DEMOCRATS WILL MEET

Congressional Convention Will Convene in This City Tuesday at the Court House.

The Democratic congressional convention for the Twentieth district will meet in this city Tuesday, June 7, to nominate a candidate for congress and a candidate for member of the state board of equalization. Hitherto the rivalry for these nominations has been of the fiercest character, as the nomination was equivalent to election owing to the enormous Democratic majority in the district. In past years the delegates to this convention have spent days balloting without results, as each county has usually presented a candidate who has refused to release his delegates as long as there was the least possibility of his receiving the nomination. This year the convention promises to be a tame and uninteresting affair, as the contest has been fought out in the various counties and the convention will merely go through the formal ceremony of ratification.

The counties comprising the district are: Brown, Calhoun, Cass, Greene, Jersey, Mason, Menard, Morgan, Pike and Scott. The convention will be composed of eighty-seven delegates. G. B. Laning, of Petersburg, is chairman of the congressional committee and will call the convention to order in the circuit court room of the court house at 12 o'clock Tuesday. If the action of the primaries is ratified, Hon. Henry T. Rainey will be renominated for congress and Hon. L. D. Hirschheimer for member of the board of equalization.

June festival, Mt. Emory Baptist church from June 6 to 11.

COLLEGE EVENTS.

Sunday, June 5, the baccalaureate services of Illinois college will be held in Westminster church at 10:45 a. m., with sermon by Albion Small, D. D., of the University of Chicago. The public is invited to this service.

Monday, June 6, is Osage Orange day. There will be athletic contests on the field, picnic dinners on the campus at noon and a ball game in the afternoon.

Everybody is invited to come and bring their luncheon. The splendid campus is an ideal place for a picnic dinner and there are always many who take advantage of the opportunity. The picnic dinner is a time-honored institution and will continue to be a popular one.

Commencement exercises of the college will be held Wednesday morning at 10:30, college grove.

The Whipple academy commencement will be held Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The alumni reunion will take place at the gymnasium Wednesday evening at 6:30.

CLUBS AND SOCIETIES.

The Young Ladies' Missionary society of Grace church will meet with Mrs. Charles Minter on North Church street Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary society of Grace church will meet Tuesday, June 7, at the home of Mrs. Joseph L. Capps, at 2:30 o'clock.

WAS WASTING AWAY.

The following letter from Robert R. Watts, of Salem, Mo., is instructive: "I have been troubled with kidney disease for the last five years. I lost flesh and never felt well and doctored with leading physicians and tried all remedies suggested without relief. Finally I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and less than two bottles completely cured me and I am now sound and well." Sold by J. A. Obermeyer, City Drug Store.

WILL MEET

Dr. William Jayne of Springfield Founder and Oldest Member of Phi Alpha Society Will Be Present at Reunion.

The Phi Alpha society, which will have its tri-ennial reunion Tuesday night, has received word that Hon. William Jayne, of Springfield, will be here to enjoy the occasion. Dr. Jayne was the first member and first president of the society, and now, after a lapse of fifty-seven years, he is still hale and hearty and an honor to the society he helped found and to the city in which he lives. He had to forego the pleasure of an important meeting in which he was to have a prominent part, at home, but his loyalty to the society, of which he was one of the fathers, overcame all other considerations. There were seven men in that company of Phi Alpha founders: Dr. Henry, who married a daughter of Colonel Chambers; P. C. Ross, of Canton; Wilkinson, a brother of Mrs. Charles Rockwell; Baldwin, who settled in Minnesota; Wright, the first secretary, long and honored physician in Sangamon county; Van Eaton, who went from Arcadia to Mississippi and rose to distinction; and Dr. Jayne, an honored citizen of Springfield. The ranks were unbroken for over forty years, and now the worthy doctor is the only survivor and he is held in greatest esteem by the members of the society who delight to show him every honor.

HAVE RESIGNED.

There will be several changes in the faculty of the Woman's college next year. The sly god Cupid has scattered his darts among the teaching force of the institution, and three members of the faculty, it is announced, will be married this fall. They are Miss Emma L. Stewart, head of the mathematics department; Miss Laura Pittman, teacher of French, and Miss Mabelle Bruner, teacher of voice.

Dr. Harker is not ready to announce the names of the new members of the faculty, but they will be made known in a few weeks.

The members of the faculty who have resigned will be greatly missed by their many friends and on account of the splendid service they have given in the college their places are not easy to fill.

Policeman Trahey arrested Will Johnson, Amos Sutton and John Caldwell Saturday afternoon for engaging in a free-for-all fist fight in front of Seeburger's store. Johnson and Sutton were taken before 'Squire Amos Henderson, where they pleaded guilty and were assessed $5 and costs. Sutton then swore out a state's warrant for Caldwell and he will have a hearing in the same court Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Great slaughter of prices at Illinois millinery house. Ladies' belts and purses, trimmed goods and all similar articles are going cheap.

TRIUMPHS OF MODERN SURGERY.

Wonderful things are done for the human body by surgery. Organs are taken out and scraped and polished and put back, or they may be removed entirely; bones are spliced; pipes take the place of diseased sections of the veins; antiseptic dressings are applied to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, which causes them to heal without maturation and in one-third the time required by the old treatment. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering which such injuries entail. For sale by all leading druggists.

REV. WILLIAM L. DENEEN.
Editor Journal. As great interest now connects with the history of Hon. Charles S. Deneen, Republican candidate for governor of Illinois, by reason of my extended association with his family, more than a half a century ago, I beg to offer the following:

In the spring of 1851 entered McKendree college at Lebanon, Ill. My college home during my residence there was with the family of Rev. William L. Deneen. His two sons, Beldon and Samuel, father of Charles S., were my college classmates up to our senior year, when I entered the Illinois Wesleyan university at Bloomington, Ill. In the family I received all the care and help that parents could have rendered. The Deneen boys were remarkable for their superiority in scholarship. Mrs. W. L. Deneen's maiden name was Moore, and came from the family of Moors that were very prominent in the early political history of Illinois. Gen. Jesse H. Moore, who was at one time pastor of Grace church in Jacksonville, and distinguished himself in the civil war, and subsequently was a member of congress, and later consul at Calcutta, South America, where he died, belonged to the same family of Moors of St. Clair county. In Dr. James Leaton's History of Methodism in Illinois, published in 1883, the following reference is made to the grandfather of the candidate for governor:

"William L. Deneen was a native of Pennsylvania, born at Bedford, Mifflin county, October 20, 1798. He was converted at Charleston, Ind., in 1827, under the ministry of Rev. George Locke. He was soon licensed to preach, and in 1828 united with the Illinois conference. He received sixteen appointments, viz: Shosh Creek, Salt Creek, Lebanon three times, Kaskaskia, Brownsville, Carlisle, Waterloo twice, Edwardsville, Belleville twice, Upper Alton, Alton and Staunton. At that time some of these places were regarded as the best appointments in the conference. During the remainder of his connection with the conference, at first the Illinois, and after 1852 the southern Illinois, he was on the superannuated list. For more than thirty years he lived in Lebanon, and all concede him to have been an honest, faithful, pure, and truly conscientious man. As a preacher he was able, searching and very instructive. He loved all the doctrines of the Bible, and for many years was a living witness to the cleansing power of the atoning blood of Christ. For nearly six months prior to his death he was mostly confined to his room; yet he never became impatient, nor did a repining word escape his lips. In visiting him his pastor always found him deeply interested in advancement of every good and noble cause, but especially with regard to the welfare of our own Zion; and in their last interview he stated that he had no fear, no anxiety, no cloud, and that no thought or will of his conflicted with the will of his heavenly Father.

"For many years of his superannuation he was surveyor or deputy surveyor for the county of St. Clair, a position in which he had but few equals and no superiors. It was while surveying that he took the cold that caused his last illness. He died July 1, 1879, in his eighty-first year." W. F. Short.

HEAVY RAINFALL.

Nearly an inch and a half of rain has fallen in the last two days and this is enough with what has gone before to seriously interfere with farming operations. There is still considerable corn unplanted and the season is getting late. The corn that has been planted, some of it, needs attention and at present the farmers could very conveniently get along for a week or two without any rain. The fall of rain Friday amounted to .32 of an inch and this, added to .52 of an inch which fell yesterday, makes a total of .84 inches. There is no immediate prospect of settled weather. Some farmers feel discouraged by the persistence of the rainy season, while others take a hopeful view of the situation and predict that it will all come out right in the long run.

JUNIOR EXHIBITION

Annual Contest in Oratory Held at Jones Memorial Building Saturday Evening—First Prize to E. C. Carter.

The annual junior oratorical contest of Illinois college was held Saturday evening in the Jones Memorial building in the presence of a large and appreciative audience, such as always gathers for an occasion of any importance on College Hill.

The orations were of unusual merit, especially in point of thought and composition. They were on timely subjects and were all of living interest, and consequently held the closest attention of the audience.

After a few words of prayer by Dean F. S. Hayden, Miss Esther Johnson gave an artistic rendition of Mendelssohn's "Spinning Song."

President Barnes then introduced the first speaker, Robert Emmet Harmon, who had as his subject "The New Slavery." He told how, after the emancipation of the slaves, cotton had been de-throned as king of the south, and how, during the reconstruction days, capitalists, in their greed for gain, had enslaved the children of the cities in their factories for a mere pittance, the lives of the little ones being in many cases bartered away by their parents for a few cents a day. He made a strong plea for the wiping out of child labor wherever it exists and cited England's experience as an example of the evils of the system. He spoke in a distinct, earnest and forceful manner and showed evidences of being in perfect sympathy with his subject.

Lathrop Huntington Ward then spoke of "Politics and the Citizen." He called attention to the fact that although no country is more proud of her system of government than Americans, yet they neglect their civic duties and this allows corruption to flourish. What we need is, first, for every citizen to perform the definite service due of any man to his country and then more officials like Folk, of St. Louis, and our honored president to root out the evil which already exists.

The young gentleman has an excellent voice for speaking and it was used with good effect. His gestures were easy, graceful and well timed. Walter Bellatti discussed "The Problem of the Public Utilities" in a forceful manner. He went straight to the point and made his arguments with clearness and ease. He said that corporations run public utilities at a minimum expenditure for the greatest gain. The public is not taken into consideration. Municipal control has been tried and failed, while municipal ownership would succeed, as it has in Europe.

"The Problem of the Slums" was the subject of a sociological discussion by Edward Tanner Brown. This most serious of problems of the present day was handled in an excellent manner. The speaker told of conditions of want, squalor and disease of the poor of our big cities, and urged that they could not be aided by men working for them, but only by men working with them. This is why the university settlements are accomplishing such a noble work.

The speaker was very earnest and convincing in his delivery, being inclined more to the argumentative than to the didactic style. He has a pleasing voice and graceful presence.

Clarence Edwin Carter, the last speaker, spoke of "The World's Ideal." He said that formerly nations strove against nations for its own aggrandizement, but a new thought of the brotherhood of all men had dawned upon the world. The ideal state is one of universal peace. Nations are inter-dependent and peace is necessary for the economic distribution of the world's products. We must control heathen nations, but war between Christian nations of the present day is inexcusable and unjustifiable. He paid an eloquent tribute to The Hague tribunal and hailed it as a long step in the right direction.

The effort was an exceedingly fine one, both in thought and composition and delivery. The speaker, while he does not possess a strong voice, used it to the best advantage. His gestures were in perfect accord and his presence was especially good.

All the speakers as they appeared on the stage were greeted in turn with hearty applause.

While the judges were preparing their markings, Miss Esther Johnson again played, giving the "Norwegian Bridal Procession," which was received with enthusiastic appreciation.

At the conclusion of this number President Barnes read the decision of the judges, Rev. R. O. Post, Prof. T. R. Hopkins and Dr. J. A. Day, in which they awarded the contest to Clarence Edwin Carter.

READ THIS:

Jacksonville, Ill., Aug. 24, 1901.—For twelve years I have suffered from sweet diabetes and have spent hundreds of dollars with various doctors, with but little benefit. I was recommended to try a bottle of Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, and will cheerfully testify to the results that it did me more good than all things else put together and am altogether another man. I have persuaded many of my friends to try it.
